

Dear Nemesio + Patricia,

We have been ringing your phone. You must be away. Rang up Virginia Huneus who said you must be "at the shore."
(How English!)

In any case we're heading for Chile - maybe leaving here on Pan Am on the 8th of Dec. or on San Chile on the 10th (Prefer San but they can't confirm yet).

Don't feel you have to put us up but it is very important to see you + to laugh + fool around. I'd also (as I wrote to Eduardo) like to do anything helpful an old artist can do (whatever that is).

Except talk to a big group. Maybe we make a little book together?

Taller 99, another book?

We ~~thought~~ ^{thought} we'd stay around Santiago till the day after Christmas then go to the south to see + draw.
Nothing definite. Any ideas?

Have to return to track ~~our~~ about the 19th of January.

By the way Norman and Juanita will arrive in Chile on Christmas Day to spend 2 months. Maybe we all get together?

Meme is studying ~~the~~ intermediate Spanish. I must begin again at the beginning, as always.

Lots of love from us both,

Paul
