

Oct. 7.

Distinguished Speaker

There will be lectures by distinguished artists and scholars, such as Antunez, director of a museum in Santiago, Chile, who serves as his country's cultural attache; art films, demonstrations and exhibits. The regular faculty of artist-teachers numbers ten.

As with the Gedney studio in White Plains, classes will be kept small and will be divided into adult, teen-age and children's groups with individual instruction.